Responsible Office

Office of Business and Finance

POLICY

Issued: 01/07/2021 – Not in effect until Workday Finance and Supply Chain are implemented at Ohio State. For information only.

The university is committed to maintaining the integrity of data in Workday. Accurate and meaningful financial data is paramount to reporting that informs effective institutional planning and decision making, fulfills state and federal mandates, and provides the foundation for effective financial stewardship. Establishment and maintenance of processes developing, maintaining, closing, and governing the financial foundation data model (FFDM) is the responsibility of the Office of Business and Finance. Only the Controller’s Office or its designees have the authority to grant requests for new FFDM worktags or to close worktags.

Purpose of the Policy

To promote the integrity of the data associated with Workday to accurately account for, monitor, and plan future financial activity.

Definitions

Term	Definition
Financial foundation data model (FFDM)	Multidimensional structure comprised of worktags used to record transactions (assets, expenses, fund balances, liabilities, or revenues) for proper transaction recording and reporting.
Exception	Any violation of or noncompliance with a university policy issued by the Office of Business and Finance (Business and Finance).
Senior fiscal officer	Individual who is responsible and accountable for all fiscal operations of a unit.
Unit	College or administrative unit.
Waiver	Permission granted to a unit to operate differently than specified or required by a university policy issued by Business and Finance.
Worktag	Objects/segments within a transaction that provide information needed for proper reporting and analysis (e.g., cost center, fund, program, etc.).

Policy Details

- I. The Controller’s Office is responsible for the FFDM and worktag governance.
- II. Worktags are established to maintain a complete, accurate, and up-to-date record of university financial activity. These records support meeting internal, local, state, and federal compliance and reporting requirements.
- III. Units are required to use worktags based upon the definitional structure embedded in Workday. Worktags and other relevant terms are identified and defined in FFDM Definitions.
